PIANIST WILL GIVE RECITAL, WORKSHOP

Walter Robert, professor of piano at Indiana University School of Music, will be on the University of Montana campus Tuesday (Oct. 22) to conduct a piano workshop and to give an evening recital.

Prof. Robert's performance in the Recital Hall at 8:15 p.m. is open to the public without charge. He will play Mozart's Adagio in B minor (K. 540), Chopin's Ballade No. 4 in F minor; Mozart's Variations on "Come un agnello" by Sarti, and Walter Bricht's Sonata No. 6.

He will conduct a piano workshop Tuesday from 10 a.m. to noon in the Recital Hall. Interested persons are invited to attend, according to Laurence Perry, chairman of the Music Department.

Roberts' appearance in Missoula is sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and the Associated Students' Program Council.

Born in Trieste, Italy, of Austrian parents, Roberts was educated in Austria. He has been a resident of the United States since 1938 and a citizen since 1945. He has taught at the Henry Street Settlement in New York City and at North Texas State College and the University of New Mexico. In 1962-63 he was a Fulbright exchange professor at the Conservatory of Music, Naples, Italy.

The pianist has given solo recitals in major cities of the world, including Vienna, Rome and New York, and has toured extensively as an assisting artist. He records for Columbia and RCA Victor. His translation of Descartes' "Compendium Musicae" was published by the American Institute of Musicology in 1961.
